Hon. Robert Preston,

Director of the Mint,

Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Sir:-

I have a West Point classmate, Mr. Henry Worth who was disabled during the war, and is now absolutely helpless. His wife is very anxious to get some work. General Flagler has lately given her the copying for the Ordnance Department, but now that work is complete.

Mrs. Worth writes me that ladies are employed at the Mint in Philadelphia as Adjusters, and that they are not under Civil Service Examination. General Flagler will write or visit you on this subject. I will be very grateful if you could give Mrs. Worth something to do.

With great respect,

Jno. A. Wheeler.

M.C. 8th Cong. Dist. Alabama.
